

LETART.

The I. O. O. F. had a fine supper the other night.

Chas. Grimm, who went to Kessler Hospital to be treated for cancer, is home for two days.

Mr. M. Mason, of New Haven, was brought to Letart for burial. He was one of the best engineers on the Ohio river.

Mrs. Edwards, who wandered away the other day, was found Sunday morning up over head in a chicken coop covered over with boards. She has been insane for a year or more.

Mr. E. A. Polsley and wife, and Mrs. May Blessing, were calling on relatives in North Point Pleasant.

Mr. Warner Finnicum has returned home from Wheeling, where he has been digging coal.

Mrs. Harret Canter and family have been called to Millwood where her brother is dangerously ill.

Mr. Stanley Brinker came home from Huntington College on a visit and returned Sunday evening.

GLENWOOD.

O. E. McCoy has gone to Cabell county to shear sheep for Dr. Beardsley.

Mrs. Effie Meadows has returned from Gallipolis where she visited her sister, Mrs. Pearl White. She was accompanied home by her nephew, Master Warren White, for a weeks' visit.

Miss Fannie McCoy spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Cecil Hagley, at Lesage.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Dillon, Miss Alice Dillon and Mr. Jas. Shaw, of Crown City, spent Sunday with T. J. Hannan.

Two shepherd dogs have been loose over the country for several days and are likely to be killed as several guns are being made ready for them. One is known to have been bitten by a mad dog some time ago and as quite a number have gone mad that had been bitten longer than three weeks (it was thought by some hydrophobia would not develop after three weeks,) some farmers are not going to take any chances and the safest way for a dog owner to keep his dog is to keep it at home.

George Baker's dog went mad a few days ago and bit two cows and a horse and the boy who was plowing with the horse escaped being bitten by the dog by climbing onto a lumber pile after it had torn his pants leg.

The many friends of James Mitchell, of Rollins, regret to learn of his death which occurred Sunday evening. His health was as usual and when he did not come for supper someone went in search of him and found him lying under a pine tree in the cemetery. He was about 66 years of age. Funeral Tuesday morning, May 11th, 1909, at 10 o'clock. Cleo patra.

PISTOL TOTING.

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY IN RECEIPT OF A COPY.

Prosecuting Attorney Blagg has received a copy of the Johnson pistol toting act, which was passed at the last session of the legislature, making it necessary for persons carrying weapons to secure license from the Circuit Court and to enter into bond in the amount of $3500. For the purpose of enlightening those who find it necessary to keep weapons in their possession the Register refers to the provisions of the act that they may be familiar with its requirements.

Regularly elected sheriffs, their deputies, regularly elected constables and regular appointed police officers in cities, towns or villages are not required to take out licenses, but they must furnish bond in the amount of $3500. They are given authority when sworn in to carry a revolver, but under the new act they are not exempt from the bond. Other persons desiring to carry weapons must secure a license from the Circuit Court and must deposit $10 for the same to the sheriff. In addition they must furnish bond. Before securing license they must show to the court good and sufficient reasons why they should be given the privilege to carry a weapon. The license shall hold good for one year.

No person will be given a license unless over 21 years of age. Every applicant must advertise in some newspaper within his county for ten days a notice that he will apply on a certain day and set forth in the notice his name, residence and occupation. He must file in his application to the court the purpose for which he desires to carry the weapon.

A person will be permitted to carry a weapon upon his own premises without securing a license, and also will be allowed to carry it home from the place of purchase or to and from a repair shop.

In case of a riot, public danger or emergency, a justice of the peace or other person issuing a warrant may authorize a special constable and his posse to carry weapons for the purpose of executing a process, and a sheriff in such cases may authorize a deputy or posse to carry weapons, but the justice or sheriff shall write upon his docket and file with the clerk of the county court his reasons and causes for such authority. The authority shall authorize the special constables, deputies or posse to carry weapons in good faith only for the specific purpose and at the times named in such authority.

The officers or others will be liable under their bonds for damages done by the unlawful or careless use of the weapons. The new law becomes effective May 16th.

ARE YOU GOING

WITH THE REGISTER TO CAMP ALGONAC, RUSSELL'S ISLAND, MICH.

Fine Outing Planned—Read the page advertisement in this Issue.

Entire cost including railroad and steamer transportation, board and lodging, will be but $20.00.

Where are you going to spend your vacation this summer? As time rolls on and as civilization becomes more and more highly developed, people generally are coming to realize that every individual who works for a living is entitled to a vacation—a brief respite from toil—at least once each year. This custom is becoming generally popular until there are but few people steadily employed who do not now plan scientifically their vacation, and of late years the outing goes hand in hand with the vacation.

There is great good to anyone in a change of scene. The annual vacation and outing has become a fixture in American civilization and, having come to stay there is a yearly recurrence of the question: "Where shall I go to spend my vacation?" This question is, generally speaking, a perplexing one as the cost must always be figured. The rich may go anywhere and at any time, but the great mass of moderately well-to-do people must count the cost. The Register believes everybody is entitled to a vacation and a summer outing and, realizing that such ordinarily comes as a hardship financially to most people, set about to find some way by which the very best in vacations and summer outings could be produced at slight cost.

Russell's Island, Michigan, proved to be the place selected as the site for a summer camp, and Camp Algonac came into being. The season of 1909 will be the third for Camp Algonac. Each year improvements have been made all toward the end of making the camp an ideal one in every particular. In anticipation of this more than $1,800.00 have been spent in improvements until now the camp has practically all the conveniences of a modern city. It is laid out in streets; it has sewers; it has ample illumination; it is enclosed with a high wire fence; it has a post-office; a police system; a pavilion; a dining hall; splendid water; approved sanitary arrangements and, above all it has one of the most magnificent settings of land, foliage, water and activity ever dreamed of by any artist. Russell's Island is called by tourists the Gem of the Great Lakes. If there is a more peaceful or beautiful spot in the wide world books do not record it.

The route is via rail to Detroit, Mich., thence by one of the elegant steamers of the White Star line to Algonac, Mich., Russell's Island being reached by naptha launches across a mile of crystal water. The English language contains no expressions fittingly describing the trip from Detroit to Algonac. The Detroit river opening out into Lake St. Clair; beautiful lake itself across which the steamer passes, getting all but out of sight of land; the U. S. ship canal; the Flats—called the Venice of America—the St. Clair river with its numerous cottages and clubhouses, and then Algonac, Mich., and Russell's Island, where the tent city gleams enticingly in the sunlight. This is the trip and, to the inland bred, it alone is worth the entire cost of the outing.

But the trip is nothing as compared with the joys of the camp. There is bathing upon one of the finest fresh water beaches in America. There is boating, fishing, athletics; in fact opportunity for every kind of legitimate and wholesome amusement. There are the side trips to Port Huron, to Mt. Clemens, to Wallaceburg, Canada, to Walpole Island, all at slight additional cost ranging from 10 cents to 35 cents the round trip. All of these advantages, as a whole, constituting practically everything desirable for a summer outing. The Register proposes to place at the disposition of all who wish to go at a price well within the reach of all. This trip, including transportation both ways, board and lodging [21 meals in camp] will be furnished adults for $20.00. Children over 5 and under 12 years $15.50; under 5 years $5.00 for table board.

In addition to what has here been said concerning this wonderful trip it would require a volume to detail the many other delightful pleasures and privileges of the camp. The island is perfectly policed and free from objectionable characters. No stranger can land on its shores without a pass signed by a committee of representative business men of Algonac, and no intoxicants are sold on the island.

The page advertisement in this issue contains the principal details of the trip. Read it, then call or write for one of our Algonac folders giving the details of the proposed outing in full. Address all inquiries to The Register Outing Agent, Point Pleasant, W. Va.

The sad news was received here Saturday morning by Mr. W. E. Allen, of this city, that his brother, Mr. Allen, of Belpre, Ohio, was dead, having departed this life on that morning, after a short attack of pneumonia, he being on the day preceding his death, much better and hopes were entertained for his recovery. The deceased was aged 76 years and was a soldier in the civil war, serving his country with courage until the struggle was closed. He was a man with many friends, who together with the surviving relatives have that sympathy which is extended to those in this sad bereavement.
